INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER A brilliantly plotted psychological crime novel about a missing child and the scandal that erupts in the aftermath with a shocking twist They know who did it. Perhaps not consciously. Perhaps not yet. But they know. When eight-year-old Daisy Mason vanishes from her family ' s Oxford home during a costume party, Detective Inspector Adam Fawley knows that nine times out of ten, the offender is someone close to home. And Daisy ' s family is certainly strange—her mother is obsessed with keeping up appearances, while her father is cold and defensive under questioning. And then there ' s Daisy ' s little brother, so withdrawn and uncommunicative . . . DI Fawley works against the clock to find any trace of the little girl, but it ' s as if she disappeared into thin air—no one saw anything; no one knows anything. But everyone has an opinion, and everyone, it seems, has a secret to conceal. With a story that feels all too real, Close to Home is the best kind of suspense—the kind that sends chills down your spine and keeps you up late at night, thrilled and terrified.

SOMEONE TOOK DAISY MASON . . . SOMEONE YOU KNOW. 'THE LAST TWIST WAS A GENUINE STROKE OF GENIUS' John Marrs 'A MAZEY, GRIPPING READ' Ian Rankin 'COMPULSIVE, WITH AN ENDING YOU WILL NOT SEE COMING' Emma Kavanagh _____ HOW CAN A CHILD GO MISSING WITHOUT A TRACE? Last night, eight-year-old Daisy Mason disappeared from a family party. No one in the quiet suburban street saw anything - or at least that's what they're saying. DI Adam Fawley is trying to keep an open mind. But he knows the nine times out of ten, it's someone the victim knew. That means someone is lying... _____ WHAT AUTHORS AND READERS ARE SAYING: 'One of the best crime thrillers I have ever read' KATHRYN CROFT 'Cancel everything. You're not going anywhere until you finish' EMILY KOCH 'A classy, agile, fresh, unpredictable and utterly compelling gift of a book: hats off' NICCI FRENCH 'Cara Hunter is the new queen of the cliffhanger' JOHN MARRS 'A real gripper of a read' PETER JAMES 'Clever and wonderfully complex' JANE CORRY 'Cara Hunter is a brilliant plotter, but it's her masterfully drawn characters that really make her novels stand out' RACHEL ABBOTT 'I finished Close to Home in one sitting!' NJALA ELLWOOD

How can a child vanish without a trace? Last night, 8-year-old Daisy Mason disappeared from a summer party at her home. No one at the party noticed her leave. Even her parents aren't sure of the last time they saw her. DI Adam Fawley is trying to keep an open mind. But he knows that in nine cases out of ten, it's someone close to the victim. When a pair of bloody tights is discovered, Fawley's worst suspicions are concerned. Someone knows where Daisy is. And her time is running out.

From internationally bestselling author Cara Hunter, a riveting suspense novel about the shocking secrets revealed when a woman is discovered held captive behind a basement wall—and no one is who they appear to be Do you know what they ' re hiding in the house next door? A woman and child are found locked in a basement, barely alive, and unidentifiable: the woman can ' t speak, there are no missing persons reports that match their profile, and the confused, elderly man who owns the house claims he has never seen them before. The inhabitants of the quiet street are in shock—how could this happen right under their noses? But Detective Inspector Adam Fawley knows nothing is impossible. And no one is as innocent as they seem. As the police grow desperate for a lead, Fawley stumbles across a breakthrough, a link to a case he worked years before about another young woman and child gone missing, never solved. When he realizes the missing woman ' s house is directly adjacent to the house in this case, he thinks he might have found the connection that could bring justice for both women. But there ' s something not quite right about the little boy from the basement, and the truth will send shockwaves through the force that Fawley never could have anticipated. A deeply unsettling, heart-stopping mystery of long-buried secrets and the monsters who hide in plain sight, In the Dark is the second gripping novel featuring DI Adam Fawley.

A bit of magic, a sprinkling of adventure, and a whole lot of heart collide in All the Impossible Things, Lindsay Lackey's extraordinary middle-grade novel about a young girl navigating the foster care system in search of where she belongs. "Wise and wondrous, this is truly a novel to cherish. " —Katherine Applegate, New York Times–bestselling author of Wishtree An Indies Introduce Selection Red ' s inexplicable power over the wind comes from her mother. Whenever Ruby " Red " Byrd is scared or angry, the wind picks up. And being placed in foster care, moving from family to family, tends to keep her skies stormy. Red knows she has to learn to control it, but can ' t figure out how. This time, the wind blows Red into the home of the Grooves, a quirky couple who run a petting zoo, complete with a dancing donkey and a giant tortoise. With their own curious gifts, Celine and Jackson Groove seem to fit like a puzzle piece into Red ' s heart. But just when Red starts to settle into her new life, a fresh storm rolls in, one she knows all too well: her mother. For so long, Red has longed to have her mom back in her life, and she ' s quickly swept up in the vortex of her mother ' s chaos. Now Red must discover the possible in the impossible if she wants to overcome her own tornadoes and find the family she needs.

When an Oxford student accuses one of the university's professors of sexual assault, DI Adam Fawley's team think they've heard it all before. But they couldn't be more wrong. Because this time, the predator is a woman and the shining star of the department, and the student a six-foot male rugby player. Soon DI Fawley and his team are up against the clock to figure out the truth

" I know how to watch my back. I ' m the only one that ever has. " India Maxwell hasn ' t just moved across the country—she ' s plummeted to the bottom rung of the social ladder. It ' s taken years to cover the mess of her home life with a veneer of popularity. Now she ' s living in one of Boston ' s wealthiest neighborhoods with her mom ' s fiancé and his daughter, Eloise. Thanks to her soon-to-be step sister ' s clique of friends, including Eloise ' s gorgeous, arrogant boyfriend, Finn, India feels like the one thing she hoped never to be seen as again: trash. But India ' s not alone in struggling to control the secrets of her past. Eloise and Finn, the school ' s golden couple, aren ' t all they seem to be. In fact, everyone ' s life is infinitely more complex than it first appears. And as India grows closer to Finn and befriends Eloise, threatening the facades that hold them together, what ' s left are truths that are real, beautiful and big enough to change them forever... From New York Times bestselling author Samantha Young comes a story of friendship, identity and acceptance that will break your heart—and make it whole again.

You ' re faced with a difficult health condition. You have exhausted medicine ' s answers. What do you do? Susannah Meadows tells the real-life stories of seven families who persisted when traditional medicine alone wasn ' t enough. Their adventures take us to the outer frontiers of medical science and cutting-edge complementary therapies, as Meadows explores research into the mind ' s potential to heal the body, the possible role food may play in reversing disease, the power of agency, perseverance, and hope—and more. When journalist Susannah Meadows noticed her three-year-old son, Shepherd, shying away from soccer practice, she had no idea it was the first sign of juvenile idiopathic arthritis. The diagnosis was the first step of a long journey, physically painful for Shepherd and emotionally wrenching for Susannah and her family. But they pressed on, and using a combination of traditional and complementary medicine they beat the disease, and the odds. Meadows chronicles her own story, and takes you into the lives of other remarkable people, exploring their heartbreaks and triumphs. One boy who has severe food allergies undergoes an unconventional therapy and is soon eating everything. An organic farmer in Washington State tries to solve the puzzle of her daughter ' s epileptic seizures. A physician with MS creates her own combination of treatments and goes from a wheelchair to riding a bike again. A child diagnosed with ADHD refuses to take medication and instead improves his life, and the life of his family, after changing his diet. Other families take on rheumatoid arthritis and autistic behaviors. Meadows includes new information about traditional and nontraditional medicine and the latest science on how the health of our gut bacteria is connected to wellness—and how the right foods play a key role in helping this microscopic population thrive. She also talks with scientists who study the traits and circumstances that may make some people keep going when others feel helpless. These researchers are illuminating the psychology of healing—how the mind, and asserting control over your body and health, can play a part in recovery. Fascinating, moving, and profoundly inspiring, The Other Side of Impossible gives us people driven by love, desperation, and astonishing resolve—a community of the defiant who share an extraordinary talent for hope and for fighting the battle for healing in today ' s world and tomorrow ' s.

THE FIRST GIRL CAME BACK THE NEXT MIGHT NOT BE SO LUCKY. 'A real gripper of a read' Peter James 'Masterful, engrossing, twisty' Rosamund Lupton 'All the Rage cements Cara Hunter's place as one of our most exciting crime writers' John Marrs _____ A girl is taken from the streets of Oxford. But it's unlike any abduction DI Fawley's seen before . . . Faith Appleford was attacked, a plastic bag tied over her head, taken to an isolated location . . . and then, by some miracle, she escaped. What's more, when DC Erica Somer interviews Faith, she quickly becomes convinced that Faith knows who her abductor is. Yet Faith refuses to press charges. Without more evidence, it's looking like the police may have to drop the case. But what happens if Faith's attacker strikes again?

_____ WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT CARA HUNTER 'Twist follows twist at a breathtaking pace' Daily Mail 'Fantastic...my favourite series ever!' Shari Lapena, author of The Couple Next Door 'This is the fourth book in the Adam Fawley series but it can be read as a stand-alone. However, I guarantee that once you've read this, if you haven't already read the previous ones, it'll be the first job on your to-do list! I loved this book, I couldn't guess the ending and the twist made me gasp' Joanne, Netgalley 'Fast paced and a fantastic cast of characters. Kept me guessing to the end - and I loved the final reveal' Fiona Barton, author of The Widow 'Cara writes with an intelligent vivacity. You can almost hear her characters breathing from the page' Jane Corry, author of I Looked Away 'Best book I've read all year. Clever plot, interesting characters and extremely well written. I read this in one go. I just did not want to put it down' Sharon, Netgalley 'Cancel everything. You're not going anywhere until you finish reading this' Emily Koch, author of If I Die Before I Wake 'Utterly compelling' Nicci French, author of The Lying Room 'A top-notch psychological thriller' JP Delaney, author of The Girl Before 'This case covers some current issues and they're handled very sensitively and with care. Cara Hunter is a talented writer and I highly recommend this series and this book 'Caecae, Netgalley 'I was totally gripped and terrified!' Araminta Hall, author of Our Kind of Cruelty 'This was my first ever read of a DI Adam Fawley novel and it most certainly won't be my last. Cleverly constructed and compelling to the very end. I loved it' Lesley Kara, author of The Rumour 'My first Cara Hunter book and wow what an experience it was! Completely sucked in from the start, would highly recommend and now off to download more of her books! Easy massive 5 stars!' 'Yet another masterpiece of crime writing from Cara Hunter - all hail the new queen of all things crime' Penny, Netgalley 'Hunter has rejuvenated the form with a wealth of details while making some cogent points about societal problems' Financial Times

A love letter to the 1980s and to nerds everywhere—The Impossible Fortress will make you remember what it feels like to love someone—or something—for the first time. Billy Marvin ' s first love was his computer. Then he met Mary Zelinsky. Do you remember your first love? It ' s May 1987. Fourteen-year-old Billy Marvin of Wetbridge, New Jersey, is a nerd, but a decidedly happy nerd. Afternoons are spent with his buddies, watching copious amounts of television, gorging on Pop-Tarts, debating who would win in a brawl (Rocky Balboa or Freddy Krueger? Bruce Springsteen or Billy Joel? Magnum P.I. or T.J. Hooker?), and programming video games on his Commodore 64 late into the night. Then Playboy magazine publishes photos of their idol, Wheel of Fortune hostess Vanna White, Billy meets expert computer programmer Mary Zelinsky, and everything changes. " A sweet and surprising story about young love " (A.V. Club), and a " quirky, endearing, full embrace of the late eighties " (USA TODAY), The Impossible Fortress will make you laugh, make you cry, and make you remember in exquisite detail what it feels like to love for the very first time. Heralded as one of the most anticipated novels of 2017 by Entertainment Weekly, Bustle, and iStyle.com, The Impossible Fortress is a surefire " unexpected retro delight " (Booklist, starred review).
