since the early 20th century. When we color, we are using multiple parts of our brain. Having cerebral palsy, my body is constantly in motion. Sometimes I will catch myself wanting to doodle on a piece of paper, even though I have to use a computer for everything. But after researching on the calming effects of coloring, I have found what I always needed. When my hands and my brain are focused on coloring, the other parts of my body begin to relax. In this volume of whimsy word search: teasing both sides of the brain, there are 60 original puzzles. So pull out your crayons and let the
